FYI. This is what all of the emails in your inbox are about. Cardona is writing a statement now. He won't tell me if it's true or not. Trying to find out. It's an engaging story so I certainly hope not

Subject: Sports Bra Ban

There is a story gaining some traction on social media about Rowan banning its athletes from wearing sports bras. It reads and feels like fake news, but people are anxious about it. I am investigating it with the Athletics Department anyway. I will update this group as soon as I have info.

Thanks for your patience.
